

Why Asheville Academy Works

We don't just talk about it. Our program is specifically designed for girls ages 10-14. We provide a safe environment, accredited academics, individualized therapy and a deep dedication to community and family. Your child will develop the confidence and resilience needed to face life's challenges. We rebuild, repair and reconnect students with themselves and their families.

Our Accreditations

Welcome to Asheville Academy for Girls!

A Therapeutic Boarding School for Students Ages 10-14

Asheville Academy is a therapeutic boarding school located in the mountains of Western North Carolina. Our clinically sophisticated program is designed to help middle school girls overcome challenges, restore relationships, and learn skills to help them succeed in life.

Our Mission at Asheville Academy is to provide an environment which fosters a spirit of creative inquiry, academy excellence and personal success.

98% of Parents Recommend Asheville Academy

Helping families reconnect and rebuild relationships through our integrative therapeutic approach.

Student Life

Our 97-acre campus offers plenty of space for experiential and unique learning opportunities outside of the classroom.

- Community-focused Service Projects

"Our experience was outstanding. Asheville Academy helped our daughter understand her emotions and channel her efforts into a more positive form.."

Clinical

Our therapeutic model utilizes developmentally appropriate techniques including equine-assisted therapy.

- 4 EMDR Trained Therapists

Academics

Our accredited academic program is designed to meet the specific learning needs of each student.

- Master-level Learning Support Specialist

98% of families believe the quality of our staff was excellent.